

ARTS DISTRICT MURALS

The Mainstreet DeLand Association and the West Volusia Historical Society maintain a collection of historical murals throughout the Downtown area. A guide to those murals can be found at the Visitor Information Center at 116 West New York Avenue. Contemporary murals in the Downtown Arts District can be seen at the following locations:

DeLand Butterfly Mural
115 East New York Avenue
Designed by John Wilton, Painted by Courtney Canova
A tribute to DeLand, Florida's First Monarch City USA

Rufus Pinkney Memorial
Artist: Robert Ammon
Parking Lot #4: 115 East New York Avenue

DeLand Wings
Artist: Erica Group
Persimmon Lane, west of Woodland Boulevard,
Between New York and Georgia Avenues

The Beer Mural
Artist: Erica Group
Persimmon Hollow Brewing Company,
111 W. Georgia Avenue
south end of Persimmon Lane

Ruth Bader Ginsburg
Artist: Courtney Canova and team
Persimmon Lane, west of Woodland Boulevard,
Between New York and Georgia Avenues

Lue Gim Gong
Artist: Courtney Canova and team
Artisan Alley - 116 West New York Avenue
A tribute to the local horticulture legend

Amphitheater Mural
Artist: Moses Sun
Noble "Thin Man" Watts Amphitheater
322 South Clara Avenue

Sickle Cell Awareness
Artist: Courtney Canova and team
905 South Adelle Avenue

VFW
Artist: Bruce Merrill
510 South Alabama Avenue

Byllye Avery
Artist: Courtney Canova and team
north end of Persimmon Lane

West Volusia Visitor Center
Artist: Jo Ann Raulerson
116 West New York Avenue

Greetings from DeLand
Artist: Erica Group Kiel
100 block of south Woodand Blvd (east side)